

THE JOB INTERVIEW

What's an interview?

It is a formal meeting during which both the interviewer, who might be a person from the HR department, and the candidate exchange information about what the firm require and the applicant is interested to know before accepting. For instance they might talk about duties, Timetables or shifts, salary, working experiences and personal abilities in a specific field.

